JUVENILE SECTION

CHAPTER 1

DETAILS OF ACTIVITIES UNDER THE BOMBAY CHILDREN ACT, 1948 AND SAURASHTRA CHILDREN ACT, 1956.

During the year under report, the Bombay Children Act was in force in the following Districts :—

(1) Ahmedabad (2) Amreli (3) Baroda (4) Broach, (5) Kaira, (6) Mehsana, (7) Banaskantha, (8) Panchmahals, (9) Surat, (10) Bulsar, (11) Dang, (12) Sabarkantha.

Whereas the Saurashtra Children Act was in force in the following Districts :—

(1) Bhavnagar, (2) Jamnagar, (3) Junagadh, (4) Rajkot, (5) Surendranagar.

Except for the definition of age-limit of Children, Bombay Children Act and Saurashtra Children Act are essentially the same. Hence necessary steps have been taken for the enactment of unified Children Act for Gujarat.

Objective :—

The Children Act aims to provide assistance for the protection, care, treatment, craft-training and rehabilitation of destitute, orphan, home less, uncontrollable, victimised and delinquent children.

Implementation of the Children Act comprises of the following aspects :—

(1) Juvenile or Children's Courts, (2) Probation and case-work services, (3) Remand Homes/Observation Homes. (4) Treatment Services. Government and Voluntary Certified Schools/Special Schools and recognised Institutions for reception of Children referred by the Courts. (5) After-care and follow-up.

1. JUVENILE COURTS

A— Juvenile Courts in the State

Except for Kutch, Dang and Gandhinagar, there were Juvenile Courts in all the districts of the State, as on 31st March, 1965.

B— Cases before the Juvenile Court

New cases and cases already disposed during the year are detailed at Statement—1.

The break-up of cases received during the year under report, as against those of the previous years is as under :—

		1964-65	1963-64	1962-63	1961-62
1	Homeless, destitutes, exposed to moral danger and neglected.	1,277	1,207	1,562	1,257
2	Uncontrollable ...	98	109	94	90
3	Youthful offenders ...	2,619	2,477	1,513	1,807
4	Victimised Children ...	90	66	38	8
	Total ...	4,084	3,859	3,217	3,162

Moreover, it would be interesting to note the situation as revealed at Statement 7. Cases of house-breaking and other offences against property numbered 956 and those of gambling 384. 2,243 cases regarding boys and 234 cases regarding girls were reported last year. It is difficult to ascribe reasons for the rise and fall in the number of these cases every year, as it depends on reporting as well. However the fact remains that these cases reported the exceptionally high incidence and it may primarily be attributed to the economical conditions of the family, owing to which the children in those families are tempted to commit thefts and other offences against property.

(2) Probation and Case-work Services

Cases of children are referred to Probation Officers for investigation. Probation Officers undertake economic, Social, family and educational investigation of the children.

Probation means on trial and to release on probation means to release conditionally. During the year under review, 146 children were placed on probation, of whom 51 were under the supervision of Probation Officers.

(3) Remand Homes, Detention and Classification Services

During the year under review, 4846 children were admitted for inquiry at the Remand Home. Necessary arrangements are provided for literacy, crafts and recreation of the children so as to keep them usefully occupied. Facilities for medical check-up and treatment are available at each Remand Home. Guardians get an opportunity to understand their responsibilities thoroughly by means of clarifications, offered by the Probation Officers and Judges of the Juvenile Courts.

During the year under report, there were 16 Remand Homes, Observation Homes in the State as under :—

(1) Remand Homes — Ahmedabad, Broach, Baroda, Surat, Panchmahals, Rajpipla, Jambusar, Nadiad, Palanpur, Mehsana, Amreli, and

(2) Observation Homes—Rajkot, Bhavnagar, Junagadh, Surendranagar, Jamnagar.

Remand Homes at Ahmedabad, Baroda, Surat, Nadiad, Broach, Rajpipla and Jambusar are managed by District Probation and Aftercare Associations. Steps are being taken to establish a Remand Home in Bulsar District, where the Children Act is in force.

Detailed analysis of cases admitted by the Remand Homes is appended at Statements II to VII.

(4) Treatment Services

A.—Non-Institutional Services

Present-day trend is drifting towards non-institutional treatment for the child, as is apparent from the following table :—

		1964-65		1963-64		1962-63		1961-62
		B.	G.	B.	G.	B.	G.	B.	G.

6	Committed to institutions ...	343	162	264	51	275	61	242	73

During the year under review, the Directorate of Social Welfare provided probation services to 16 Juvenile courts through its 30 stipendiary Probation Officers of whom 25 officers are appoined by Government and 5 officers are appointed by the District Probation and Aftercare Associations. It is proposed to appoint Voluntary Probation Officer in order to enhance the Probation Services. When a child is released by the court on probation supervision, the Probation Officer visits him at home and offers proper guidance and assistance.

B.—Classification Services

Classification centre is a specialised agency between the Remand Home and Certified School, wherein a psychological study of the child is undertaken and the type of institution suitable for him is decided.

Presently, there is only one classification centre, attached to certified school at Baroda. There are 5 certified schools in Gujarat State as under :—

Certified schools at Broach, Surat, Baroda and specialised school for Boys and for Girls at Rajkot.

(1) Certified School for Boys, Broach.— Boys in the age group of 8 to 18 years with rural background are committed to this school. Proposals for development of the primary section of the school are under consideration. Boys are trained in agriculture, carpentry and weaving, in accordance with Government recognised course.

(2) Certified school for boys, Surat.—The school is meant for boys in the age-group of 6 to 18 years. Tailoring and teaching classes are chief of its activities. Boys also cultivate some of the acres of land belonging to the school. The institution is housed in a rented building, but it is proposed to have its own building.

(3) Certified school for boys, Baroda.— The school is intended for boys in the age-group of 12 to 18 years. Besides the teaching classes, the school offers training in carpen ry, tailoring and gardening. It is proposed to start turners and fitters classes for boys.

(4) Special school for boys, Rajkot.— Boys in the age-group of 12 to 21 years are committed to this school. This is an industrial school, offering training in courses prescribed by the Director of Technical Education. It also offers instructions in turning, fitting, carpentry, tailoring and weaving. The school has its own workshop in a separate building.

(5) Special school for Girls, Rajkot.— Girls in the age-group of 5 to 21 years are committed to this school. Literacy classes are conducted at the school and some girls are allowed to attend local schools for studying. The institution also imparts training in tailoring, embroidery and other crafts.

Apart from the certified schools mentioned above, a special certified school, viz. Home for Mentally Deficient Children is being managed at Rajkot. During the year under report, 13 children were committed to the institution. Orthopedically Handicapped and crippled children are referred to Home for crippled children at Baroda.

(5) Bombay Borstal School Act, 1929

The said act is in force in Gujarat State. Before the formation of the State, children were referred to Dharwar. Thereafter, arrangements were made with the Mysore State for referring the children released under the Act. Children released on licence under the Act, are supervised by the Gujarat Probation and After-care Association of the Gujarat State.

(6) Bombay Habitual Offenders Restriction Act, 1959.

Despite the Act being in force, there is no provision for the settlement of persons, detained under the Act.

(7) After-care and Follow-up Services

After-care services in fact, commence with the commitment of the child to the institution. In case the child shows good behaviour and has benefitted by means of training imparted at the institution and if the atmosphere at home is conducive, he can be conditionally released on licence for the remaining period of his commitment. During the period under licence, the child remains under the supervision of Probation Officer. The Chief Inspector of the certified schools is authorised to release the children on licence. During the year under review, 72 boys and 30 girls were released on licence. In all, there were 72 boys and 30 girls under supervision on licence for the Probation Officers.

B. Follow-up.— This is the final phase in the treatment process and is also an integral part thereof. The follow-up programme commences only after the child is discharged from the institution or after the licence period is over. The service is both supportive as well as preventive in character. Superintendents of the certified schools keep in contact with the released children through personal visits and also through correspondence and keep a watch over their activities. Moreover they offer them necessary guidance and assistance. The service has not progressed as it should, but there still remains much scope for it.

(8) Preventive Services

It is more important and less expensive to prevent the child from wrong-doing than to persuade him to right path. With this in view, the Directorate of Social Welfare, Gujarat State has provided for Juvenile Guidance Centre and Youth Club. In all, there were 5 Juvenile Centres during the year under report, i.e. one each at Ahmedabad, Baroda, Broach, Bhavnagar and Junagadh and 4 Youth Clubs are established at Baroda, Bhavnagar, Rajkot and Surat, where energies of the children are properly guided by means of sports and other cultural programmes.

Moreover, the Directorate of Social Welfare, Gujarat State, runs a Mental Hygiene and Child Guidance Clinic at Ahmedabad, where children as well as adults having mental and behaviour problems are offered adequate guidance and treatment by trained and experienced phychiatrist, psychologist and social worker. During the year under report, 54 cases were treated at the clinic.

(9) Third Five Year Plan

Achievements during the year 1964-65.— Children covered under the Bombay Children Act and Saurashtra Children Act are provided with institutional and non-institutional treatment. Moreover, measures are also undertaken for the prevention of Juvenile delinquency.

During the plan period it is proposed to set up an organisation to provide for the implementation of Children Act in all the districts of the State. Accordingly, a Remand Home has been started at Prantij for the implementation of Children Act in Sabarkantha District. Thus, by the end of 1964-65, Remand Homes have been started in 12 Districts under the Third Plan.

An amount of Rs. 64,069·00 was spent for the planned activities regarding the Children Act, during the year 1964-65.

CHAPTER II

BEGGAR'S ACT

Introduction :

Modern cities have many social problems to face, begging being one of them. Population of cities in India has increased repidly. According to the census of 1961, Ahmedabad has a population of 13 lakh. During the current year , the Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959 was in force in Ahmedabad and Surat. In the ensuring year, it will be applied to Baroda, the third town in the State.

Ahmedabad and Surat are large towns where industries provide employment, hospitals admit patients and religious minded people offer alms. Due to all these, people from other districts, and States are tempted to come over here and when it becomes difficult to earn a livelihood some of them turn to begging.

Nature and Scope of working .—The Bombay Prevention of Begging Act, 1959 was in force in the Municipal limits of Ahmedabad and Surat. The Municipal Corporation bears 50 per cent of the expenses in each city. The Directorate of Social Welfare, Government of Gujarat has started two Reception Centres one each in at Ahmedabad and Surat for care and protection of beggars taken to custody under the Act. Persons rounded up under the Act are committed by police to these Reception Centres, where first of all they are medically examined.

In each case, case-workers attached to the institutions undertake social investigation. In local cases, they visit their houses and place before the court a personal report. First-time offenders are released after due warning or on personal bond. They are given a chance Second-time offenders are sentenced upto 1 year's imprisonment and the Act provides for them an imprisonment upto 10 years.

Under section 13 of the Act, Government of Gujarat have established five Beggers' Homes as under, for their treatment and rehabilitation :—

Sr. No.	Name of the Institution	Place and number of accommodation	Type of admission
1	2	3	4
1	Beggars' Home, (for males), Odhav, Ahmedabad.	Odhav, Ahmedabad-150.	Able-bodied.
2	Beggars' Home, Naroda	Kubernagar, Ahmdabad-20.	Able-bodied and those requiring medical treatment.
3	Beggars' Home, Junagadh	Junagadh, 100.	Blind, old and infirm
4	Female Beggars' Home, Dabhoda.	Dabhoda, District Ahmedabad-200.	All female beggars
5	Reception Centre, Surat	Rander, Surat-150.	All beggars from Surat.

Moreover, following institutions have been certified for special type of beggars :—

(1) Mental Hospital, Ahmedabad.
(2) Kagdapitha Leprosy Hospital, Ahmedabad.
(3) Parvatibai Lepers' Hospital, Surat.
(4) M. P. Shah Kustha Nivaran Dham, Bhavnagar.

Mental Hospital at Ahmedabad is certified institution for lunatics whereas Leprosy Hospital near Kagdapitha at Ahmedabad and Parvatibai Lepers, Hospital at Surat are certified institutions for lepers.

Number of beggers arrested.—As against the previous year, number of beggers apprehended during the year 1961-62 has increased as indicated below :—

Name of City	1963-64			1964-65
	Male	Female	Total	Male	Female	Total
Ahmedabad	377	87	464	610	86	696
Surat	93	63	156	141	66	207

Number of Inmates.—During the year 1964-65, 903 beggars were arrested at Ahmedabad and Surat, of whom 266 were committed to following institutions:—

(1)	Beggars' Home, Odhav. ..	95
(2)	Beggars' Home, Naroda. ..	56
(3)	Beggars' Home, Junagadha. ..	3
(4)	Beggars' Home, Dabhoda. ..	56
(5)	Beggars' Home, Surat. ..	56

Of the 266 beggars (231 males+53 females) 120 were re-arrested. It could, therefore, be seen that proper alertness is exercised in rounding up the habitual beggars from the city.

Following are the figures of beggars remanded to certified institutions during the last two years :—

Year	Total detained	From Gujarat State	From out of Gujarat State	Percentagse of out-siders
1963-64 ...	213	130	83	38%
19646-5 ...	266	128	138	52%

It can thus be seen that number of beggars from other States in India, has increased by 14 per cent.

There is no considerable difference in age-grouping of beggars detained during the last two years. Of the total beggars detained during the year 1963-64. 108 i. e. 51 per cent were above 41 years of age whereas of the 266 beggars detained during the year 1964-65, 131 i. e., 50 per cent were above 41 years of age.

Institutions.—List of Receiving Centres and Beggar's Home under Bombay Prevention of Beggar's Act, 1959 is appended as statement I. During the year under report, Parvatibai Lepers's Hospital, Surat and M. P. Shah Kushna Nivarana Dham, Bhavnagar were certified under section 13 of the Beggar's Act for leper beggars with effect from 31st March 1965.

Receiving Centre, Odhav.—During the year 696 beggars were detained whom 457 were released after warning or on personal bond. During the year, only two beggars absconded from the institution, whereas 50 per cent more beggars were arrested as against the last year.

Receiving Centre, Surat.—The institution commenced its activities in the year 1963. However, the Beggar's Act was applied to the Municipal limits of Surat with effect from 1st May 1965. Beggars arrested from within the Surat Municipal limits alone are remanded to this institution. During the year under review 207 beggars were detained under the Act, of whom 56 were committed to the detention section of the centre. 110 Beggars were released after due warning or on personal bond and 31 were set free. Those who are required under the Beggars Act to be remanded to Beggar's Home, are at present detained at Surat. The institution has secured an order from the Municipality for manufacturing of furniture worth Rs. 20,000 of which order to the tune of Rs. 8,369 has already been carried out.

Shri Bhikhabhai Sakalchand Satia Beggar's Home, Odhav.—This, the oldest institution in the State is situated at Odhav Road, Ahmedabad, in rural atmosphere far away from the urban limits and near the Receiving Centre. Instructions in agriculture, tailoring, weaving, leather works and carpentry are provided here. It manufactures soap required by all the institutions under the Directorate of Social Welfare.

It has 20 acres of agricultural land and plenty of water being available it will be cultivated all the year round.

Beggar's Home (for males), Naroda.—The institution is situated at Kuber Nagar Sardar-Nagar township near Sardanagar Railway Station on Ahmedabad-Prantij line. This is the biggest certified institution under the Bombay Prevention of Begging Act. During the year under report 63, beggars were admitted to the institution, of whom more than ⅓ were old and insane. Only 13 inmates were under 25 years of age.

Eight beggars had affliction of T. B. of whom four had completely convalesced. All the inmates were diognised and properly treated through T. B. Demonstration. The institution has a ward for the disabled beggars, having an average attendance of 12 inmates.

The institution conducts such crafts as weaving, carpentry, and tailoring and possesses about 3 acres of agricultural land. During the year, water was in bad supply. It admits old, infirm and crippled beggars, and if possible they are engaged in light work.

Beggar's Home, Junagadh.—The institution provides treatment for the old, insane, lame and blind beggars. During the year, under review, 25 beggars were admitted . Blind beggars are trained according to the Brail system and they are instructed in essential crafts at at sheltered workshop, Junagadh.

Beggar's Home (for female), Dabhoda.—This, the only institution for female beggars in the State, is situated at village Dhaboda on Ahmedabad Prantij line, at about 15 miles from Ahmedabad. Most of the inmates are insane. During the year 19 female beggars were referred to Mental Hygine Centre, Ahmedabad. Consequently there is improvement amongst them. In case similar treatment is made available at the institution, if may yield better result. As inmates are received from all over India, it poses language problems as well.

Although the beggars admitted are old and insane, they were made to take interest in various activities of the institution, viz. tape-manufacturing, broom making, tailoring and embroidery.

Services.—All the Beggar's Homes and Receiving Centres provided various services as under :—

(1) Lodging and boarding (2) Case-work treatment (3) Medical treatment (4) Clothing and beding (5) Mental treatment (6) Personal hygiene treatment . (7) Recreation (8) Radio and music (9) Bhajan Kirtan (10) Voluntary education (11) Agriculture and gardening.

CHAPTER III

WORK DONE UNDER THE BOMBAY PROBATION OF OFFENDERS ACT, 1938.

Except for Dangs, Amreli and Sabarkantha Districts. The Bombay Probation of Offenders Act was in force during the year 1964-65 throughout the State.

In framing the Act, the concept of judiciary that "Offenders should be punished" has been revised to read "Offender should be reformed", because in context of the progressing social conditions and the changing values of social life, it is believed that a person is not a born offender but circumstances make him so; hence instead of punishing the offender, efforts should be made to improve and guide him, having studied the forces involved in the offence.

The Act provides that in case of juvenile offenders, the Investigating officers should submit to court his report regarding personal, economic, social and mental conditions of the offender, together with his own observations, so that while judging the case it can be taken into consideration for determining if the offender deserves a chance.

Those offenders that have been given a chance for reformation are placed under the supervision and guidance of Probation Officers for a prescribed period during which they help the probationers to solve their difficulties and problems and try to rehabilitate them as useful citizens in the society.

In terms of law, "Probation" means suspension of sentence. Hence, during the period of suspension, the Probationer gets an opportunity for reformation, under the guidance of a trained social worker.

The Bombay Probation of Offenders Act aims at providing fullest of opportunities to offenders who have been led to err under the impact of adverse environment and accidental causes, so as to enable him to improve and live in the midst of the society as an honest citizens respecting law and socio-ethical order. This would be surely much better than confining them to prisons behind the iron-bars.

During the year under review, 1092 cases were reported from 15 districts of the State under the Act, in which 1157 persons were involved of whom 90 persons were released unconditionally after reprimand and 204 persons were placed under the supervision of Probation Officers for a prescribed period. Districtwise details in this regard has been appended at Statements I, II, III.

An analysis of the above details would reveal that during the year under review, Ahmedabad district reported largest, number of cases, Kaira, Surat, Baroda and Rajkot being next in order. Larges number of these cases, were pertaining to offences against property. Cases of offences regarding physical hurt ranked next. It can be thus seen that it is economic stress that has led them to most of the offences.

1056 cases were reported in the year 1963-64. As against that, 1092 cases were reported during the current year, which is much less despite the fact that the Act was in operation in other three districts.

The probation system is gradually progressing and usefulness of the Act is also being apprehended. During the previous year, sentence of jail and fine was pronounced in 127 cases as against which there were 73 such cases during the current year. This also corroborates the above fact.

Assistance to released prisoners.—In addition to the facilities offered to the probationers, released prisoners are provided with such economic and other help and guidance as is essential to live self-dependence. In Ahmedabad the Released Prisoners Aid Society is entrusted with the task, whereas in other districts it is carried out through the agency of Chief Officers and Probation Officers. In order to help such prisoners, Probation Officer and liasion officer visit them in jail and collect information regarding relatives and family members of the prisoners due to be released and try to make them live a good and secure life after release. In case of needy, they also offer financial assistance for such minor facilities as medicines, railway-fare etc. Thus, the officers also contribute towards the after care of the prisoners that have offended under the force of circumstances and are imprisoned far away from the family.

During tne year, 1963-64, 245 released prisoners were provided relief in various ways, whereas during the year under report, assistance, and guidance were also provided to such prisoners.

CHAPTER IV

AFTER-CARE AND SOCIAL AND MORAL HYGIENE PROGRAMME

For rehabilitation and after-care of men and women, short term Reception Centre for women at disrict level and long-term State homes have been set-up under the programme.

The Reception Centres at the district level provide shelter to deserted distressed and destitute women and every effort is made to train, educate and civilise them so as to facilitate their rehabilitation in the society, for which every facility is provided. Under "Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act," the institutions have been declared as " Shelter Homes ".

Details of institutions established in Gujarat State are as under—

Foundling Homes have also been started for the children of women received at the institution as well as for the children of unmarried mothers so that children under six years are able to stay with their mothers in the institution. Presently such Foundling Homes have been started at Surat, Surendranagar and Baroda.

More and more women can avail of the Reception Centres if voluntary agencies and social workers extend their fullest co-operation. With a view to impart vocational and educational training, it is under consideration to equip each of the Reception centres with a production unit. At present, candle making industry has already been started at the State Home, Baroda for women.

Managing Committee.— Managing Committee of officials and non-officials has been constituted to successfully organise and guide the Reception Centres, District Shelters and State Homes.

Activities under the Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act.— The Reception Centres and State Homes for women have been declared as "Shelter Homes" under the Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act, 1953. Efforts are made by the Police to extend their activities under the Act.

Total number of inmates admitted to Reception Centres and State Homes for women during the last three years amounts to 1070 of whom 1488 have been rehabilitated. Details of inmates rehabilitated during the last three years are as under :—

Statistical analysis of work done under the Moral and Social Hygiene and After care Programme is appended a statement I & II.

Work done under the Women and Children Institutions Licensing Act.—The act was implemented in the Terrritories of Gujarat State with effect from 1st April 1958.

Inspectors of the Directorate of Social Welfare pay frequent visits to the institutions. During the stay of the inmates in the institutions, the Director is required to provide them with wholesome and adequate food, satisfactory living conditions, and recreation and has to arrange for grant and educational and vocational training.

Names of institutions licensed under the Licensing Act have been mentioned at statement III appended herewith. Presently, 38 institutions have been lincensed. During the year 1964-65, Licence will be issued to 38 institutions active in the field of women and children welfare.

Achievement during the Year 1964-65 under Third Five Year Plan

Social and Moral Hygiene and After-care Service.—Under the programme, financial assistance was given as under during the year :—

(1) Grant-in-aid of Rs. 53,837 to voluntary agencies engaged in preventive and rescue work.

(2) Grant-in-aid of Rs. 75,890 to voluntary agencies for construction of buildings for the institutions.

(3) The Directorate of Social Walfare had given Rs. 8,800 as an aid towards the rehabilitation of released prisoners and their families.

Moreover, an expenditure of Rs. 49,800 was incurred towards Reception Centres, State Homes and Foundling Homes, during the year 1964-65.

Work done by voluntary agencies.—In the State, both Government as well as voluntary agencies are active in the field of womenwelfare. Presently there are eleven such institutions engaged in the task of women welfare in Gujarat State. The institutions have been licensed under the Women and Children Institutions Licensing Act, 1955. The institution, situated in the different districts of the State provide shelter to women in economic, social or moral distress and do their best to rehabilitate them in the Society; their main object being to "Shun the vice and save the victim".

Cases received by these institutions fall under the following different categories :—

(1) Deserted wives.
(2) Illtreated by family.
(3) Unmarried mothers.
(4) Rescued from moral distress.
(5) Destitute.
(6) Family discord.
(7) Illegal motherhood.
(8) Miscellaneous.

During the year 1964-65, 637 women were admitted to voluntary agencies. Details regarding admissions in each institution as well as the amount of grant paid to them are mentioned at Statement IV. Generally the institutions are paid a monthly grant of Rs. 25 per rescue case.

Family Counselling Centre.—The centres offer advice in such social problems as marital disharmony, family discord, economic distress, etc. and in case of need, shelter is provided to women at the institution. Presently, there are few such centres run by voluntary agencies, which are situated as under :—

	Name of the institution	Location.
1.	Family counselling centre.	Akhil Hind Mahila Parishada, Baroda.
2.	Family counselling centre.	Jyoti Sangh, Ahmedabad.
3.	Family counselling centre.	Tapibai Vikas Gri ha, Bhavnagar.
4.	Family Counselling center.	Putaliba Udyoga Mandir, Rajkot.

During the year 1964-65, 2437 women availed of the centres details regarding which are appended at Statement V.

During the year 1964-65, an amount of Rs. 12,000 was provided for the scheme, against which Rs. 9,100 were spent. The scheme has been in force from 1962 and total expenditure incurred upto 1964-65 amounted to Rs. 19,900 An amount Rs. 200 towards the salary of the Social Worker attached to the centre is paid by the Directorate of Social Welfare.

CHAPTER V

WELFARE OF THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED

Physically handicapped are a part of the society, and it is the responsibility of the society to help them. Our own culture attaches special significance to service of the physically handicapped and the distressed. Accordingly, the society has continued to help them in some sort or the other, out of compassion for the physically handicapped. But with the advance of science and social sciences in last few decades it was felt that the physically handicapped can be as useful to the society as a normal citizen, provided sufficient opportunities for education and Training are made available to them. Instead of being burdensome to other, the physically handicapped would be able to live a self-dependent and honest life. So far as the society had compassionate outlook for them it was satisfied with offering them monetary help. The view point having been changed, it was conceived to educate and train them properly. Consequently, it was undertaken to establish separate schools for them.

2. Before independence, schools for physically handicapped especially for the blind and the deaf and dumb children had already been started by the voluntary agencies. The State had been paying grant-in-aid to the schools. During the post-independence period, the State also started to actively participate in providing welfare services to the physically handicapped, in accordance with the constitution of India. That is how welfare services for the physically handicapped began to flourish at the official level.

3. The class of physically handicapped consists of blind, deaf and dumb and orthopaedically handicapped. It also covers welfare activities for mentally deficient children. Welfare activities for the physically handicapped mainly constitute the following :

(1) Education (2) Training (3) Rehabilitation.

Details of activities under each head are as under :—

(1) Education.—Education is the basic equipment for an individual to live an orderly life in the community. Formerly, physically handicapped were not adequately educated as they were regarded as weaker section of the society. But seven decades back, voluntary institutions for them were started here and there in the country, out of compassion for them. But after independence, State began to share active responsibility for educating the physically handicapped and alongwith that it continued to encourage the voluntary institutions for the physically handicapped by means of grant-in-aid. Prior to the year under report, following institutions were engaged in welfare activities for the physically handicapped.—

	Institutions/Schools	Government	Voluntary
1.	Schools for Blind ..	4	11
2.	Schools for Deaf and Dumb ..	2	8
3.	Home for orthopaedically handicapped.	1	1
4.	Home for Mentally Deficient children	1	..

565 blind, 312 Deaf and Dumb, 85 orthopaedically handicapped and 54 mentally deficient children were given education and training at the above institutions.

During the year under report no institution/school has been started but existing schools were developed,. Thus, the girls' sections of schools for Deaf and Dumb at Mehsana and Junagadh were expanded.

Efforts were made to experiment the idea that physically handicapped children should be educated in company of other normal children so as to cultivate self-respect and self-dependence amongst them. Consequently Surat Municipality had provided facilities in a general school for the education of physically handicapped children with the normal children. The school had been given grant-in-aid during the year under report.

It was also proposed to provide integrated education to the blind with sighted children. Vividhlakshi Vidyamandir at Palanpur had implemented the scheme and had arranged for the education of blind along with the sighted children. Thus, 9 blind children were educated with the sighted children at the primary and secondary levels of the schools. The school received grant-in-aid from the Government. Efforts are being made to implement such a scheme of integrated education in the State.

During the year under report, 686 blind, 405 deaf and dumb, 71 orthopaedically handicapped and 53 mentally deficient children had availed the facilities for education and training at Government as well as private schools in the State.

Training in Crafts for the Physically Handicapped.—Training in various crafts is an important prerequisite for the rehabilitation of the physically handicapped. Almost every school/institution for the physically handicapped mentioned above, imparts training in such crafts as carpentary, tailoring, weaving etc. Details of industrial training imparted at various schools/institutions are appended at Statement I. Following institutions have been started to impart training to adult physically handicapped who have no opportunities of education or training in their early childhood or during the school days :—

Sr. No.	Institution/centre	Government or voluntary
1	Training centre for the adult Deaf and Dumb, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad.	Voluntary
2	Sheltered workshop for the crippled persons (run by Apang Manav Mandal), Near Atira, Ahmedabad.	Voluntary
3	Sheltered workshop for the Adult Deaf and Dumb, Navrangpura, Ahmedabad.	Voluntary
4	Sheltered workshop for Blind women, Rajkot. (Run by Andha Mahila Vikas Griha, Rajkot).	Voluntary
5	Sheltered workshop for Blind, Rajkot.	Government
6	Tata Agricultural & Rural Training Centre for the Blind, Phansa, District Bulsar.	Voluntary

Details of training imparted at the institutions are appended at Statement I. A stipend of Rs. 30 is paid to the trainees during training period at the above-mentioned Sheltered Workshops-cum-training centre. At the sheltered workshop for crippled persons, Ahmedabad, wages are offered in accordance with the work done. No sheltered workshop has been started during the the year under report. However, the following workshop were paid grant-in-aid during the year under report:—

Grant

	Rs.
(1) Sheltered workshop for the crippled persons, Ahmedabad from the State Government).	18,000
(2) Sheltered workshop for women, Rajkot, (from the Government of India)	30,000

Rehabilitation.—In order to enable the physically handicapped people live a respectable life in the society, it is essential to provide them suitable employment. A special Employment Exchange has been functioning for the purpose in the State. During the year under report, 35 blind, 8 Deaf and dumb and 240 orthopaedics were provided employment at various institutions.

Full expenditure towards the special Employment Exchange for the physically handicapped, is borne by the Government of India. With a view to strengthening employment services fo the physically handicapped, the State Government has decided to reserve 4 per cent of the posts in the Public Sector for the physically handicapped. Moreover, the age-limit for the recruitment of the physically handicapped has been relaxed upto 35 years. Government resolution of the kind would create greater scope for the employment of the physically handicapped. In order to provide employment to the physically handicapped Government has constituted for a Medical Board at this Employment Exchange, which determines the type of work suitable to particularly handicapped person.

Training for teachers of the physically handicapped.—Training colleges started previously for the teachers of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind persons, have been continued. These training colleges are run by the School for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind at Ahmedabad. These institutions are paid a grant-in-aid 100 % by the Government. During the year under report, 8 teachers were trained in teaching the blind and 8 in teaching the deaf and dumb. Since the inception of the institutions, 79 candidates have been trained in teaching the blind and 45 candidates in teaching the deaf and dumb.

Scholarships for the physically handicapped.—In order to encourage training and education for the physically handicapped, State Government and Central Government have devised schemes for the award of scholarships. During the year under report, 2 blind, 1 deaf and dumb and 16 orthopaedically handicapped were awarded scholarships by the Government of India, while 11 blind and 67 deaf and dumb were awarded scholarship by the State Government. Scholarships to the tune of Rs. 20,000 are being awarded by the State Government.

Advisory Committee for the training of physically handicapped.—With a view to discuss in detail the welfare schemes for the physically handicapped and to consider issues regarding their education, training and rehabilitation, State Government had constituted a State Advisory Committee in 1961-62. During the year under report, the Committee held its third meeting on 20th February 1965 whereas following issues regarding the physically handicapped were discussed:

(1) Scheme issues for Integrated education of the blind students,

(2) Scheme for educating the deaf and dumb children alongwith the normal children.

(3) Prescribing courses for the schools of the Deaf and dumb and the Blind.

(4) Prescribing standardwise minimum strength of teachers per student, so as to maintain efficient standard of training imparted at schools for the physically handicapped.

(5) Organising an Educational Seminar for the teachers employed in schools for the Deaf and Dumb, in the State.

(6) Recommending some relaxation regarding eduational qualification for the deaf persons desiring to obtain admission in various training and art schools.

(7) Considering the urgency for an institution of higher studies for the Deaf and Dumb children.

Welfare of the old and infirm.— Homes for the aged and the infirm that had been started during the second Five Year Plan under schemes for the welfare of the old and the infirm continued their activities during the year under report and they received grant-in-aid from the Government. The Homes for the aged and the infirm are run by voluntary agencies, details of which are as under :—

	No. of Inmates
(1) Home for the aged, Bhavnagar	27
(2) Home for the aged, Junagadh	30
